1. Provide a project proposal. This should include: team members names (one or two), 2 suggestions for a proposal in order of preferences. In each provide title, paper(s) information (full citation of where the paper appears), and 1-2 sentences describing your proposal. This should take half or a full page at the most. Note, these proposals are not final. If you would want to change to another project not listed, this will be considered.